Please bring a sleeping bag, pillow, towels, toiletries, flashlight, Bible, note pad, pen or pencil, and spending money for souvenirs and snacks. You may also want to bring sunscreen, sunglasses, lip balm, bug spray, hat, flip-flops to wear to and from the pool/bathhouse, and camera. Any medication should be in its original packaging; we will dispense medication only as prescribed.

Please do not bring food, pets, cigarettes, drugs, alcoholic beverages, matches, fireworks, weapons of any kind, electronic devices (e.g., MP3 players, cell phones, smart watches, games), excess money, or valuables.

**We cannot accommodate various special diets, so please bring your own supplementary foods, if needed. A refrigerator, microwave, and toaster are available to store and prepare special diet foods. Food from a previous meal may be set aside for a future meal.*

Clothing Notes: Any fashion worn must come at least to the top of the knee. Anything skintight does not count as covered but can be worn as a base layer. Tank tops, tight shirts, clothing with low necklines in front or back, or styles leaving the midriff bare should not be worn. Exposed undergarments are not permitted. Appropriate clothing includes knee-length shorts, and loose-fitting slacks or jeans. For summer camp morning chapels, regular camp dress is acceptable. For summer camp evening services, fashions to the top of the knee and shirts that are a step above a T-shirt are acceptable. Styles worn to evening services should not be intended for the athletic events/exercise, or bedtime. Campers must be covered from neck to knee when going to and from cabins and pool/bathhouse.

GIRLS: Swimsuits should be one-piece or fit like a one-piece. If the top of the swimsuit is not lined or has a low neckline in front or back, a colored T-shirt or tank top must be worn over it.

GUYS: Swimsuits must be modest, trunk-type suits.

Camp Assurance reserves the right to ask any camper to change his/her outfit if, in the estimation of the staff, the outfit is too immodest, too feminine/masculine, suggestive, or promotes worldly activities.

Please Note: Please mark all luggage with the camper's name. Marking clothing with the camper's name is optional.
